CAREER PROFILE ANALYSIS

Dear Ms. Asrina Yasmine,

Based on the scores of the tests, you seem to fit best for the career paths such as Architecture, Visual Arts & Law. You may consider Visual Arts or related field as your top priority as it has got the highest score with respect to Interests as well as Personality. You may consider Law related courses as your next in the list as you have Interest and an Investigative personality. You may also think of Biological or Agricultural or Fisheries or Health or Social Sciences related courses too. You may choose the courses related to the above after your 12th std to join in the UG.

If not as a career, fields such as specialising in a specific language and teaching may be considered as a hobby or for additional income in future as you have a natural intelligence for the same.

Based on the discussion, I understand that you are interested much in Fashion Designing and Paramedical courses or Bio Tech related courses.

So as a next step, based on the above analysis, you may explore the Colleges, Course options, Eligibility and the Entrance examinations available for the above fields in India and especially in Chennai.

Wishing you all the best to choose a course that matches your Aptitude, Interest and Personality.
